Assessment Bylaw Passed By Council

The regular meeting of the city council was held on April 1st, evening all members in attendance except Ald. Eman and Pendleton.

After the minutes of the previous meeting had been adopted Envoy Michel addressed the council and asked permission for the Salvation Army to hold a tag day on May 13th. This was granted.

B. M. Parker addressed the council and offered to exchange two lots owned by him at St. Paul's with one lot owned by him in the same block which is on the water and sewer line. He offered $100 for the buildings on the lot, and if the exchange takes place, he will erect a nice bungalow. The matter was referred to the public properties committee for a report.

E. Merner interviewed the council, when it was agreed that he lease a portion of the pasture land just north and west of the power house for the sum of $35.00 per month.

L. A. Harvey addressed the council in regard to the payment of business taxes. This was referred to the finance committee and the collector with power to act.

H. M. Evans, of the Finance Commission of Alberta, wrote in reference to the proposed money bylaws, suggesting a couple of minor changes. The draft of the bylaws will not be submitted to the public utilities board for adoption until after further communications from City Solicitor Russell referring to minor affairs, were filed.

The offer of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co., to keep the machine in the city offices in good condition for $15.00 for the year was accepted. L. O. Johnson wrote to the effect that he had fallen on very hard times on February 1st, and therefore his health had not recovered other than to be able to settle with the city for the hospital expenses and doctor's account which amounted to $27.00. The matter was referred to the public works committee and the city solicitor for report.

The provincial department of public health wrote that there were two patients in the Central Hospital at Wetaskiwin, and that the department would look to the city for the maintenance charge of $3.00 per day each for these patients. The matter was referred to the health and relief committee to investigate and report.

A letter from E. J. Barnes relates to the union will hold one of those pleasant and profitable parlor meetings in the home of Mrs. J. P. Ferguson. General invitation is extended to all ladies and gentlemen who are members of the society. A good entertainment, and a silver collection for some department of our work, make up the program.

The district convention meet at Red Deer on May 4 and 5. Our delegates are Mrs. Mollett, local president and Mrs. Poole, district corresponding secretary and superintendent of press work.

Hugh Gordon, writing in the Christian Herald, tell us: "The Saskatchewan liquor commission has secured with the cooperation of the druggists and doctors, an abatement of the prescription evil. He considers the system of publishing the principal elements of success as it has stopped the tendency to exaggerated runars. The number of prescriptions has been reduced in one year from 1,000,000 to less than 100,000. The sixty physicians of Regina have the best score averaging 1,000 prescriptions per month, and twenty of them with the largest practices, never issue a prescription for internal use."

The editor of the Christian Guardian, in an article on the Off Shore Liquor Ship, call our attention to the following: "And sooner or later Canada will be up against the same difficulties as the United States, to be paid for delivery in the United States. It does not seem really very much like an unfriendly act for Canada to permit herself to be used to assist the infamous bootleggers, traffic."

John Moon offered $12.00 for the lease of land for pasture. This was referred to the public property committee with power to act.

The application of W. E. Weller for water and sewer connections to the new residence he is building on the east side was referred to the committee.

The monthly accounts and payroll were passed for payment.

Chief of Police Shuster presented his report for the month of March, showing that over $900 has been collected in license fees. The report was adopted.

W. J. Kadie's offer of $50.00 for small business on Peter Street east, was referred to the public property committee with power to act.

The action of the police, market and license committee in having a new plank put on the weigh scales was ratified.

The question of enforcing the motor vehicles act in the city was discussed at some length, when it was decided that the committee and the police see that the principles of the act are strictly carried out.

Bylaw No. 442, setting the rate of property assessment for the year was read three times and finally passed.

Bylaw No. 444, accepting the sale of property to Johnson & Johnson was read the first and second times.

Alf. Compton was elected deputy mayor for the next period of three months.

The matter of surveying the large area of land held by the city, was referred to the public property committee to report.

It was decided to offer the lots adjoining the Criterion Apartments on the north for sale by auction on Saturday, April 22nd.

Mayor Montgomery reported what had taken place at the joint meeting of the council and the police in the matter of riding over the Prince of Wales land for hospital purposes. Since the holding of the meeting, an offer had been received from Longstaff & Taylor that they would agree

We join in extending congratulations to these successful students.

GREGG MAKING GOOD WITH SEATTLE CLUB

A press dispatch says: Vern Gregg the Alberta farmer, who is now on the pitching staff of the Seattle club of the coast league, strayed out to the box a few days ago, at Stockton, Calif., to show the boys that he could still manipulate his left arm. Every eye was turned on the veteran southpaw, and he did not let them down. The first batter he faced was a righthander, and Gregg struck out a man, and only allowed two infield hits. Gregg has an assortment of hooks, a good change of pace and his comchuck depends upon whether or not he can dispense his whistling fast ball that made him famous in the major a few years ago.

On Tuesday evening, April 25, our union will hold one of those pleasant and profitable parlor meetings in the home of Mrs. J. P. Ferguson. General invitation is extended to all ladies and gentlemen who are members of the society. A good entertainment, and a silver collection for some department of our work, make up the program.

The district convention meet at Red Deer on May 4 and 5. Our delegates are Mrs. Mollett, local president and Mrs. Poole, district corresponding secretary and superintendent of press work.

Hugh Gordon, writing in the Christian Herald, tell us: "The Saskatchewan liquor commission has secured with the cooperation of the druggists and doctors, an abatement of the prescription evil. He considers the system of publishing the principal elements of success as it has stopped the tendency to exaggerated runars."

"Last year there were 7060 accidents cases reported in the various clinics which are being treated in the scope of the act. Of these were fatal and 1000 were sufficiently serious to cause permanent disability. Every accident is carefully investigated, and compensation arranged in each individual case, after consultation with the injured worker himself, so far as he wishes his compensation paid."

"There have been but ten fatal accidents so far this year, but none have been classified as personal injuries, nor cases of prolonged hospital treatment. It may be some time before permanent disability can be established."

"We have something like 50,000 workers who come within the scope of the act, and 2,300 employers, apart from the municipal and school districts of the province."

"Anybody who has an idea that Alton's industrial payroll is rather insignificant, it is for a fact that for May, 1932, the payroll is in the neighborhood of $60,000 per month, and this does not include agricultural workers, store and office workers, and certain classes of railroad employees."

The Edmontonians in its Sunday evening illustrated section, in a lead of what was reported in the news of the Wetaskiwin branch of the Merchants bank twenty years ago. The names were V. C. James, Jameson, who was a young resident of Vancouver; Frank Pike, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Edmonton; R. J. Dinning, manager of the Bank of Commerce at Lethbridge, and N. G. Logue, now of Edmonton.

The meeting adjourned at midnight.

The Peace Hills Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire will give Rose Ball on April 25th, the proceeds to be devoted to the local hospital and to scholarship endowments. To a three months' notice of vacation or after, date of the expiration of the first year.

NATION BUILDING IN CANADA

Universities to Follow the Railroad in Binding East and West Together
For the Cause of National Unity

Hand in hand with the material growth of Canada, with the extension of her population, and the development of her natural resources, moves forward the rate of her intellectual and spiritual life. The rates of mind and heart which develop the spirit and indomitable courage are making a nation; are not the kind that are content with the merely material things of life. Canada's pioneers of a little while ago were young men who saw visions and men who dreamt dreams, and their daughters and daughters are no less gifted. Their broadening horizon now includes a new world of mental and spiritual effort in which they, in turn, must be pioneers. The realization of this fact has become a living force in the fine universities that are already doing a great work at Winnipeg, Edmonton, and Saskatoon and Vancouver.

In the making of the Canadian nation so far, avenues of transport and communication have worked towards completion of the structure of the Dominion Federation. Canada's national unity is founded and fostered by the political and physical links that bind east and west, but it can be fully developed only when the avenues of Canadian thought move east and west as do those of trade. This is the thought that lies behind the recent donation by the C.P.R. of three annual subscriptions of the value of $500 each to Toronto University to add to its library equipment and that of independent institutes of Western College to complete their studies at that great Canadian centre of learning.

The universities of Western Canada are growing fast. Their standard of instruction is high, and an ever growing number of their students desire to pursue post-graduate studies beyond the stage now possible at their provincial institutions. Through these scholarships a constant stream of the brightest and most ambitious of western university students will be enabled to spend some time in Eastern Canada to broaden their knowledge and methods of life and thought there. As stated by Mr. E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in his letter to Sir Robert Falconer, President of Toronto University announcing the granting of the three scholarships: "The movement is one that will obviously be of benefit, not only to the students, but also to the communities in which they will afterwards live."

tured goods which had depreciated to an alarming extent."

Regarding these wool supplies, according to a statement issued by the British Australian Wool Association, the sales of Australian wool, both by itself, and privately owned during the twelve months ending October 31, 1921, exceeded the quantity grown during the season of 1920-21, by about 400,000 bales.

HOW DO YOU ACCOUNT FOR THIS UNUSUAL YOUNG BOY?

Harold M. Finley may not know as much about his boy, but certainly knows a great deal for a little fellow of three who is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Finley, of McConnellville, Ohio. His father is a lawyer. The boy is ready for all the fun that is going. He enjoys his little automobile, his tricycle and his blocks. But when he uses his mind he is different. His family has spread so far that Professor R. L. Morton, of the Ohio University, visited McConnellville and subjected the boy to a series of tests which were later reported in the "Journal of Educational Research." The examination was made on the day when Harold was four years and two months old. His mentality was found to be that of a boy of seven in some respects, and nine in others.

The boy's father gave the writer a variety of details.

"When he was two years old nine months old he could tell the time or day," began Mr. Finley. "I presented him with a watch, which he carried for several months. He had a lot of fun telling his playmates what time it was. He could also tell the time anybody asked to see his time piece. On Christmas, just before he was 3, he received a block map of the United States, and he soon learned to put it together very quickly. He could heat in three times over. Last Christmas, when he was nearly five, he gave himself a puzzle map of the world, and he soon learned how to use it.

"He also has a puzzle county map of Ohio, having one piece for each forty-eight pieces in all. It is no trick for him to assemble this map."

"When he was four years old he could name every state and its capital and spell the names of both the states and capitals. He is able to locate all the large cities, and give the population of most of them. This data he learned from a little pocket memorandum book which he obtained several months ago and prided very highly."

"One of his amusements is to take trips to other parts of the country in his imagination, naming all the states he passes through on his way. He is able to start in Ohio and go in any direction.

"When he was two years old again his grandfather frequently announced him by name, and the children used to say, 'There comes another fresh child.'

"Some afternoons he was able to read for himself. At four he could read as well as the average pupil at the end of his first year in school. He began drawing books from the public library a month before he was five years old. Just recently he has finished a list of fifteen books or more."

"When the daily paper is sent to him in the morning he brings it to his mother. The first thing he does is to look for the weather forecast and read it sound. Then he turns to the stock market reports and compares the daily quotations of nearly a dozen of the leaders with the previous day from memory, always telling how American, Welsh, U.S. steel, Crucible Steel, Southern Pacific, and several others stand up.

"Harold has a remarkable memory for names and numbers. There are about four hundred names in our village telephone directory, and he can give the numbers of all the parties we call from our house without a moment's hesitation. He is the same way with birthdays. He has a book in which he has written about two hundred and forty names with the date of birth just above each name. Many of these dates he can give from memory.

"When he goes to church he usually carries a pencil and a paper and puts down a list of those present and he very seldom makes a mistake in the spelling of names.

"He knows the multiplication table including the twelfth, and can give answers almost instantly. He adds, subtracts, multiplies, and divides. Just lately he has been doing some long division, and has solved many problems having a dozen or more figures. He has a good idea of fractions, and counts money and makes change as quickly as most grocery clerks. He can tell the year any person was born in, if given the age. A short time ago I asked him to give me the year in which a man of thirty-eight was born. In twelve seconds he replied 'In 1884.'

"For a number of months he has been studying birds at a slight when he sees their pictures. WEST BANKRUPT H. W. WOOD TELLS COMMONS BOARD

On April 12—Conditions in the west have been serious for the past two years; agricultural products are selling for less than the cost of production. The farmers' security is exhausted and our farmers are bankrupt."

This was a summary of the western farmers' conditions, as outlined to the house committee on agriculture the other day by H. W. Wood, representative of the Canadian Agricultural Association. Western farmers asked for re-establishment of the wheat board because they believed they would get better prices for their wheat. Mr. Wood believed that the wheat board would add $25,000,000 to the farmers' income by handling this year's production.

Farmers did not ask a fixed price, but they believed that the wheat board method would give them an even break in marketing their wheat. The wheat market is controlled at the present time by the grain dealers, who dump on the market rather than let it go to the farmer at threshing time in order that the farmers might meet debts.

A wheat board would not add to the consumers' outlay, Mr. Wood declared. It would not permanently solve the financial problem, but if there was a wheat board this fall the whole country would benefit.

"No industry can continue to operate at a loss," Mr. Wood asserted.

"Unless this loss is checked there must be a serious curtailment of production on the part of farmers. The grain objective is to have a wheat board because it is compulsory. But the grain marketing system at present was compulsory because a man could not sell his grain outside of it. This problem could not be solved along sentimental lines. There must be some action to relieve present conditions."

"We come to you in absolute distress," he said. "We are in a financial condition which is actually appalling. We are compelled to seek relief which we believe is in the interests of every class in Canada. We may work a hardship on a very limited number of people, but will not harm any legitimate interest. This is the only possible immediate practical relief on the side of wheat."

"Who would pay the $25,000,000 extra which the farmers would receive as the result of creating a wheat board?" queried E. J. Sexsmith, Progressive, of Leslie and Addington. "The cost of the wheat board would be regulated by certain prices," replied Mr. Wood. "Only some 45,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat are consumed at home. If do not believe the consumer would pay a cent more for flour."

The initial price of wheat would be settled by the wheat board, Mr. Wood continued, but he would not attempt to say what that initial price might be for the coming season. The board must guard against ultimate price fix."

Mr. Wood, in his opinion, would be settling by the wheat board, Mr. Wood continued, but he would not attempt to say what that initial price might be for the coming season. The board must guard against ultimate price fix."

Mr. Boyle, then attorney general, asked for an appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada which was refused. If he then appealed to the Supreme court of Canada for permission to appeal and the supreme court of Canada upheld the decision of the Alberta court...

Mr. Boyle was not satisfied with the answer of the court of Canada and took similar action in a somewhat similar case some time before. He was not satisfied with the finding. He believed that it was unreasonable in cases of this kind not to appeal to the supreme court of Canada but had to go direct to the privy council. Accordingly he appealed the Privy Council. The council embraced two important members of the government to establish the right of the government to make an appeal of this nature to the supreme court of Canada. The other was against the finding of the supreme court of Canada on the decision rendered on the conviction.

Accordingly the province has won a double victory.

PROVINCE WINS DOUBLE VICTORY IN PRIVY COUNCIL

The province of Alberta has won a double victory in an important and far-reaching case before the privy council, both in a legalistic sense and in its importance in the enforcement of the liquor act.

The case arose out of action taken against the far-famed Nut Bell Liquor Co., limited, of Edmonton, in October, 1920, one of the detectives of the department of the attorney general purchased a case of liquor from the export house of the firm in question.

The detective, who was a young man at the time, placed under the liquor stock of the company valued at $15,000.00. The magistrate convicted the company, imposed a fine of $200 and ordered the confiscation of all cases of liquor in the possession of the company valued at $60,000.

Mr. Justice Hyndman on certiorari proceedings quashed the conviction and ordered a return of the liquor. Chief Justice Harvey ordered a stay of proceedings, and the supreme court of Alberta upheld Mr. Justice Hyndman.

"When the daily paper is sent to him in the morning he brings it to his mother. The first thing he does is to look for the weather forecast and read it sound. Then he turns to the stock market reports and compares the daily quotations of nearly a dozen of the leaders with the previous day from memory, always telling how American, Welsh, U.S. steel, Crucible Steel, Southern Pacific, and several others stand up.

"Harold has a remarkable memory for names and numbers. There are about four hundred names in our village telephone directory, and he can give the numbers of all the parties we call from our house without a moment's hesitation. He is the same way with birthdays. He has a book in which he has written about two hundred and forty names with the date of birth just above each name. Many of these dates he can give from memory.

"When he goes to church he usually carries a pencil and a paper and puts down a list of those present and he very seldom makes a mistake in the spelling of names.

"He knows the multiplication table including the twelfth, and can give answers almost instantly. He adds, subtracts, multiplies, and divides. Just lately he has been doing some long division, and has solved many problems having a dozen or more figures.

He has a good idea of fractions, and counts money and makes change as quickly as most grocery clerks. He can tell the year any person was born in, if given the age. A short time ago I asked him to give me the year in which a man of thirty-eight was born. In twelve seconds he replied 'In 1884.'

For a number of months he has been studying birds at a slight when he sees their pictures. WILL ENFORCE ALL AMATEUR REGULATIONS

Calgary, April 12—To check irregularities in amateur baseball this summer the Alberta Amateurs Baseball association proposes to keep close tab on all players operating on the different clubs in the various affiliated teams. At a recent meeting of the association in this city, it was decided that after each game a copy of the line-up of every team be forwarded immediately to the association secretary at Calgary. This will enable club is playing an ineligible man and him to ascertain whether or not this can be readily discovered by going over the certificates taken out by that club. In the event of a team being found guilty of using ineligible players, the offending club will suffer a loss in the league standing and the opposing team credited with a win.

The association also provided that in the event of two opposing teams playing ineligible men, they will each be reduced by a loss. By this system it is hoped that the practice of importing outside talent for amateur ball will be eliminated and the association plans to adopt a drastic measure in order to assure strict observance of the new regulations.

The governing board has included in the resolution that whenever possible, clubs are asked to seal in box scores of their games. All these line-ups will be kept on file by the secretary and the inclusion of any new names will be carefully scrutinized by the board.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weir received a great surprise when about fifty of their neighbors visited them and woke them up from their slumbers. The good people made the best of it and everyone had a great time, dancing, singing and musical selections being the order of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Weir are now returning to their home and it should be passed on to the neighbors to remember next time that Mr. and Mrs. Weir and the family go to bed early. Everyone knew about the surprise with the exception of the visited. They hadn't a phone.

If ten men would be their condition in one month's time. How many of the ten would be capable of standing the pioneering necessities of providing themselves with food, shelter and clothing without a physical breakdown?

An examination of 1500 athletes in a Y.M.C.A. class revealed more than eighty percent suffering from spinal defects of varying degrees and types. The man with a spinal defect may thrive under hardship, if the defect is not serious. Otherwise eight of the ten men can be expected to show weakness soon after being subjected to hardship.

Chiropractic spinal adjustments remove the cause of disease of the head, throat, lungs heart, stomach, liver, pancreas, spleen, bowels and the lower organs.

TOWN TOPICS

J. V. Annert, who has been connected with the branch of the Imperial Bank at Daysland for some time, has been transferred to the Wetaskiwin branch.

The current issue of the Alberta Gazette announces the appointment of Henry Jackson Wilson of Wetaskiwin and Arthur Percy Mitchell of Millar as notaries public.

Mr. Carl Larson wishes to thank the ladies of the Angus Ridge Women's Institute for the autograph quilt drawn by him at the entertainment given at Angus Ridge on March 31st.

Nearly all the teachers on the Wetaskiwin staff will attend the convention to be held in Calgary next week. The schools here will be closed from Thursday afternoon of this week until Monday, April 24.

Word was received in the city last week that Mr. Bruce, one of the pioneer settlers in the Lewisville district, but who has made his home with friends in Calgary for a number of years, has passed away.

This district received a heavy fall of wet snow Tuesday night and Wednesday forenoon, which will supply the much needed moisture to start vegetation. The farmers who were in town today are all wreathed in smiles.

A large number of Indians were in the city on Tuesday celebrating the receipt of a large payment of money on account of the sale of land some years ago. Some of the families received as much as $50.00, while others received a little less.

The Easter meeting of the Battle River branch of the W.M.F. will be held at the home of Mrs. Arnold Cherry Grove, at 3 p.m., Thursday, April 22. A short program with a social tea will be given. Everyone cordially invited.

At a meeting of the directors of the Mutual Oil & Gas Development Company, Limited, held in Edmonton on Saturday evening last, Mr. C. C. Delmago tendered his resignation as president of the company, and Mr. H. D. Hanson was elected as his successor. It is very gratifying to the citizens of Wetaskiwin, especially the shareholders in the company, to know that a Wetaskiwin man is honored in such a position.

Mrs. Hattie (formerly Miss Babe Wilkins), who was visiting her parents and other friends in the city for several weeks, left on Thursday last for her home in Montreal. She was accompanied as far as Ottawa by Miss Gertrude Hyndman of Edmonton.

The pie social held under the auspices of the Angus Ridge Women's Institute was a great success, as $64 was realized from the sale of the pies. The quilt was drawn by Carl Larson. The Institute wishes to thank all those who helped to make the social a success.

N. S. Smith, M.P.P., Olds, will address the shareholders of the Farmers' store at their quarterly meeting on Saturday, April 22, at 2 p.m. and will explain the reasons for the elimination of the cream buying stations. W. Prevey, Edmonton City Dairy, will also address the meeting.

The Everhard packing plant at Stettler, which has been under construction for some time, is nearly completed and will be in operation soon. The plant will have an ample capacity for handling hogs and cattle in proportion to the demand, and outside of plants in Edmonton and Calgary, will be the largest in the province.

The Easter meeting of the Battle River branch of the W.M.F. will be held at the home of Mrs. Arnold Cherry Grove, at 3 p.m., Thursday, April 22. A short program with a social tea will be given. Everyone cordially invited.
